

Simultaneously with delivering an information set required under article 13 and article 14 of GDPR every personal data administrator should provide every natural person, especially a consumer, a specific information scheme related to technical steps of exercising a request to be forgotten by those natural person (e.g. a consumer). The scope of such information set should cover an information about main technical steps of adopted by personal data administrator procedure exercising requests to be forgotten. This kind of information should inform every natural person, especially a consumer, by using a simple and plain language. Additionally after exercising a request to be forgotten personal data administrator should provide applicant a statement that the technical exercise of the request of being forgotten has been completed.

Marcin Wolski

A handwritten signature in blue ink, consisting of a large, stylized loop followed by a horizontal line and a short vertical stroke.