RECORD OF AMICABLE RESOLUTION FOR THE PURPOSE OF EDPB GUIDELINES 06/2022 ON THE PRACTICAL IMPLEMENTATION OF AMICABLE SETTLEMENTS VERSION 2.0 (ADOPTED ON 12 MAY 2022)

Dated the 4th day of September 2023

Data Protection Commission 21 Fitzwilliam Square South Dublin 2, Ireland

Background

- 1. On 3 March 2021, Construction ("the Data Subject") lodged a complaint pursuant to Article 77 of the GDPR with Urząd Ochrony Danych Osobowych ("the Recipient SA") concerning Paysafe Prepaid Services Limited ("the Respondent").
- 2. In circumstances where the Data Protection Commission ("the DPC") was deemed to be the competent authority for the purpose of Article 56(1) of the GDPR, the Recipient SA transferred the complaint to the DPC on 10 August 2021.

The Complaint

- 3. The details of the complaint were as follows:
  - a. In November 2020, the Data Subject contacted the Respondent requesting the closure of their account. In their reply, the Respondent indicated that they were required to first verify the Data Subject's identity. Although the Data Subject contacted the Respondent by phone to attempt to verify their identity, this attempt was unsuccessful.
  - b. On 19 January 2021, the Data Subject made an erasure request to the Respondent pursuant to Article 17 of the GDPR, requesting the erasure of personal data.
  - c. On 25 January, the Respondent replied, refusing the Data Subject's request. In their reply, the Respondent indicated that they were required to retain the data in order to comply with their legal obligations, as per Article 17(3)(b) of the GDPR.
  - d. As the Data Subject was not satisfied with the response received from the Respondent, they lodged a complaint with the Recipient SA.

Action taken by the DPC

- 4. The DPC, pursuant to Section 109(4) of the Data Protection Act, 2018 ("the 2018 Act"), is required, as a preliminary matter, to assess the likelihood of the parties to the complaint reaching, within a reasonable time, an amicable resolution of the subject-matter of the complaint. Where the DPC considers that there is a reasonable likelihood of such an amicable resolution being concluded between the parties, it is empowered, by Section 109(2) of the 2018 Act, to take such steps as it considers appropriate to arrange or facilitate such an amicable resolution.
- 5. Following a preliminary examination of the material referred to it by the Recipient SA, the DPC considered that there was a reasonable likelihood of the parties concerned reaching, within a reasonable time, an amicable resolution of the subject matter of the complaint. The DPC's experience is that complaints of this nature are particularly suitable for amicable resolution in circumstances where there is an obvious solution to the dispute, if the respondent is willing to engage in the process. In this regard, the DPC had regard to:

- a. The relationship between the Data Subject and Respondent (being, in this case, an individual consumer and a service provider); and
- b. The nature of the complaint (in this case, an unsuccessful attempt by the Data Subject to exercise their data subject rights).
- 6. While not relevant to the assessment that the DPC is required to carry out pursuant to Section 109(4) of the 2018 Act, the DPC also had regard to EDPB Guidelines 06/2022 on the practical implementation of amicable settlements Version 2.0, adopted on 12 May 2022 ("Document 06/2022"), and considered that:
  - a. the possible conclusion of the complaint by way of amicable resolution would not hamper the ability of the supervisory authorities to maintain the high level of protection that the GDPR seeks to create; and that
  - b. such a conclusion, in this case, would likely carry advantages for the Data Subject, whose rights under the GDPR would be vindicated swiftly, as well as for the controller, who would be provided the opportunity to bring its behaviour into compliance with the GDPR.

Amicable Resolution

- 7. The DPC engaged with both the Data Subject (via the Recipient SA) and Respondent in relation to the subject matter of the complaint. Further to that engagement, the Respondent advised that having received the Data Subject's request, due to a result of an internal error, the request had not been handled correctly. In the circumstances, the Respondent advised the following:
  - a. The Respondent confirmed to the DPC that it had deleted the Data Subject's personal data on 12 January 2023.
  - b. The Respondent also apologised for their error, and indicated that they have reformed their training practices regarding escalating rights requests.
- 8. The DPC's letter outlining the information provided by the Respondent as part of the amicable resolution process issued to the Data Subject on 13 April 2023 via the Recipient SA. In its correspondence to the Data Subject, the DPC requested that the Data Subject notify it, within a specified timeframe, if they were not satisfied with the information provided by the Respondent, so that the DPC could take further action.
- 9. On 19 May 2023, the Recipient SA confirmed to the DPC that no response had been received from the Data Subject.
- 10. On 29 May 2023, and in light of the foregoing, the DPC wrote to the Recipient SA noting that the DPC considered the complaint to have been amicably resolved and withdrawn in accordance with section 109(3) of the Act and that it would conclude the case and inform the Respondent.

11. In circumstances where the subject matter of the complaint has been amicably resolved, in full, the complaint, by virtue of Section 109(3) of the 2018 Act, is deemed to have been withdrawn by the Data Subject.

Confirmation of Outcome

- 12. For the purpose of Document 06/2022, the DPC confirms that:
  - a. The complaint, in its entirety, has been amicably resolved between the parties concerned;
  - b. The agreed resolution is such that the object of the complaint no longer exists; and
  - c. Having consulted with the supervisory authorities concerned on the information set out above, as required by Document 06/2022 the DPC has now closed off its file in this matter.
- 13. If dissatisfied with the outcome recorded herein, the parties have the right to an effective remedy by way of an application for judicial review, by the Irish High Court, of the process applied by the DPC in the context of the within complaint.
