RECORD OF AMICABLE RESOLUTION FOR THE PURPOSE OF EDPB GUIDELINES 06/2022 ON THE PRACTICAL IMPLEMENTATION OF AMICABLE
SETTLEMENTS VERSION 2.0
(ADOPTED ON 12 MAY 2022)

Dated the 16th day of February 2024

Data Protection Commission
21 Fitzwilliam Square South
Dublin 2, Ireland

Background

1. On 18 August 2023, [REDACTED] (“the Data Subject”) lodged a complaint pursuant to Article 77 of the GDPR with the Data Protection Commission (“the DPC”) concerning Meta Platforms Ireland Limited (“the Respondent”).
2. The DPC was deemed to be the competent authority for the purpose of Article 56(1) of the GDPR.

The Complaint

3. The details of the complaint were as follows:
 - a. The Data Subject lost access to their Facebook account as a result of a bad actor gaining control and changing the email address associated with the account. Following this, the Data Subject contacted the Respondent on 15 August 2023, to request erasure of the account pursuant to Article 17 of the GDPR.
 - b. The Respondent requested further information from the Data Subject with the aim of verifying they were the rightful owner of the account in question. The Data Subject provided the requested information to the Respondent, but this action did not result in the account’s erasure from the Respondent’s platform.
 - c. As the Data Subject was not satisfied with the response received from the Respondent, they lodged a complaint with the DPC.

Action taken by the DPC

4. The DPC, pursuant to Section 109(4) of the Data Protection Act, 2018 (“the 2018 Act”), is required, as a preliminary matter, to assess the likelihood of the parties to the complaint reaching, within a reasonable time, an amicable resolution of the subject-matter of the complaint. Where the DPC considers that there is a reasonable likelihood of such an amicable resolution being concluded between the parties, it is empowered, by Section 109(2) of the 2018 Act, to take such steps as it considers appropriate to arrange or facilitate such an amicable resolution.
5. Following a preliminary examination of the material referred to it by the Recipient SA, the DPC considered that there was a reasonable likelihood of the parties concerned reaching, within a reasonable time, an amicable resolution of the subject matter of the complaint. The DPC’s experience is that complaints of this nature are particularly suitable for amicable resolution in circumstances where there is an obvious solution to the dispute, if the respondent is willing to engage in the process. In this regard, the DPC had regard to:
 - a. The relationship between the Data Subject and Respondent (being, in this case, an individual consumer and a service provider); and

- b. The nature of the complaint (in this case, an unsuccessful attempt by the Data Subject to exercise their data subject rights).
- 6. While not relevant to the assessment that the DPC is required to carry out pursuant to Section 109(4) of the 2018 Act, the DPC also had regard to EDPB Guidelines 06/2022 on the practical implementation of amicable settlements Version 2.0, adopted on 12 May 2022 (“Document 06/2022”), and considered that:
 - a. the possible conclusion of the complaint by way of amicable resolution would not hamper the ability of the supervisory authorities to maintain the high level of protection that the GDPR seeks to create; and that
 - b. such a conclusion, in this case, would likely carry advantages for the Data Subject, whose rights under the GDPR would be vindicated swiftly, as well as for the controller, who would be provided the opportunity to bring its behaviour into compliance with the GDPR.

Amicable Resolution

- 7. The DPC engaged with both the Data Subject and Respondent in relation to the subject matter of the complaint. The DPC first engaged with the Respondent on 2 November 2023. Further to that engagement, it was established that the Respondent received the erasure request of the Data Subject, but was unable to identify them as the rightful owner of the account based on the additional information provided. After reviewing the complaint, and after detecting a suspicious login attempt, the Respondent placed the account in a checkpoint on 6 November 2023. The Respondent further confirmed that the Data Subject managed to clear the checkpoint on the same day, and after regaining access to the account, they scheduled it for permanent deletion.
- 8. On 14 November 2023, the DPC wrote to the Data Subject, seeking their views on the action taken by the Respondent. The DPC also requested the Data Subject to notify it, within a specified timeframe, if they were not satisfied with the action of the Respondent, so that the DPC could investigate the matter further.
- 9. On 21 November 2023, the Data Subject confirmed that the action taken by the Respondent had resolved their complaint.
- 10. In circumstances where the subject matter of the complaint has been amicably resolved, in full, the complaint, by virtue of Section 109(3) of the 2018 Act, is deemed to have been withdrawn by the Data Subject.

Confirmation of Outcome

- 11. For the purpose of Document 06/2022, the DPC confirms that:

- a. The complaint, in its entirety, has been amicably resolved between the parties concerned;
- b. The agreed resolution is such that the object of the complaint no longer exists; and
- c. Having consulted with the supervisory authorities concerned on the information set out above, as required by Document 06/2022 the DPC has now closed off its file in this matter.

12. If dissatisfied with the outcome recorded herein, the parties have the right to an effective remedy by way of an application for judicial review, by the Irish High Court, of the process applied by the DPC in the context of the within complaint.
