Decision under the General Data Protection Regulation

Decision of the Authority for Privacy Protection

IMY adopts the Danish Data Protection Authority's decision in Appendix 1 pursuant to Article 60(8) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and closes the case.

Presentation of the supervisory case

On the 4th of January 2023 the complainant filed his complaint with the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY). On the 5th of July 2023 IMY sent the complaint to the Danish Data Protection Authority as the case concerns cross-border processing and SkatePro ApS has its main establishment in the Netherlands. The Danish Data Protection Authority has investigated the matter and issued a decision pursuant to Article 60(3) GDPR. None of the supervisory authorities concerned has expressed an objection to the draft decision pursuant to Article 60 (4) GDPR.

Statement of reasons for the decision

The Danish Data Protection Authority has stated in its draft decision that the investigation has shown that SkatePro has now deleted the complainants personal information from all their systems, and that SkatePro does not seem to use "forced consent" as addressed in your complaint, as present.. In light thereof and that none of the supervisory authorities concerned have expressed an objection to the draft decision IMY adopts the decision pursuant to Article 60(8) GDPR.

The case is therefore closed.

How to appeal

If you wish to appeal the decision, you should write to the Swedish Authority for Privacy Protection (IMY). Indicate in the letter which decision you wish to appeal and the change you are requesting. The appeal must have been received by IMY no later than three weeks from the day you received the decision. If the appeal has been received in time, IMY will then forward it to the Administrative Court in Stockholm for review.

You can e-mail the appeal to IMY if it does not contain any privacy-sensitive personal data or information that may be covered by confidentiality. IMY's contact information is shown in the first page of the decision.
